Price: €650,000

We proudly present a truly special opportunity to acquire a traditional Canarian property set in the centre of the beautiful village of Guatiza. Surrounded by dramatic mountains, iconic cacti landscapes and majestic dragos, this exceptional plot of approximately 5,135m² offers an atmosphere of total tranquillity where every corner breathes peace, heritage and authentic Canarian culture. The property features a traditional Canarian house constructed with thick stone walls, characteristic of the island's architectural heritage. While the dwelling is currently in a state requiring full restoration, the original exterior stone walls remain standing and provide a magnificent foundation to create a grand rustic residence full of character…
