This impressive property, spread over two floors has the upmost privacy. The private gated driveway (suitable for several cars) and high feature stone walls which enclose the garden along with the large, heated swimming pool, provide a secluded and private setting, in one of the most exclusive streets. The circular design of the villa creates an exceptional and spacious living room area, the heart of the home. The wooden dome ceiling found in the living room, is both unique and stunning a real wow feature upon entering the property along with central chandelier. There is wooden flooring throughout, and many of the rooms have wooden panelling for an opulent feel. Attractive stonework graces the inside and outside of the property. The villa has...
