An exceptional opportunity – Lanzarote Investments is delighted to present for sale the historic cinema in the 600-year-old town of Tegüise. This characterful building, situated in a prime location in the island's former capital, has operated as a successful antiques and curiosities business for the past 25 years. Currently trading as Emporium, this well-established company was founded in 1999 and has since become a leading name in importing unique and antique furnishings to the Canary Islands, with a strong presence in Lanzarote. Emporium is renowned for offering pieces of outstanding beauty and distinctive design, all priced to be accessible to a wide range of buyers. The property features a spacious retail area of 300m²....
