This expansive coastal villa is built for scale, flexibility, and serious lifestyle value. The main residence delivers 10 large bedrooms and 10 bathrooms, with 8 en suites—ideal for multi-generational families, group living, or structured residential use. An attached yet fully independent apartment adds 2 further bedrooms and a bathroom, creating optional space for management, staff, or separate occupants. Inside, the design is modern, polished, and operationally efficient. Large communal zones include a statement entrance hall, an oversized main living area, and a secondary lounge suited to breakout sessions, meetings, or relaxed downtime. The fully equipped kitchen connects seamlessly to these spaces, supporting everything from family...
