Lanzarote Investments presents a rare opportunity to acquire a licensed property in the heart of Yaiza, one of the island's most established and protected villages. Known for its traditional character and proximity to Lanzarote's most iconic landscapes, Yaiza remains a consistently strong location for both lifestyle buyers and long term investors. The property comprises five en suite bedrooms, all equipped with air conditioning and televisions, offering a layout that supports continued accommodation use or reconfiguration into a substantial private residence. The design allows for flexible use, making it suitable for a retreat style home, extended family living, or continued hospitality operation. A central communal area serves...
